Beginning next year, the Diamondhead Property Owners Association may have to begin paying Hancock County property taxes on its amenities.

"Starting in 2025, they're going to be subject to taxation unless a higher court" overturns a Hancock Circuit Court judge's ruling earlier this year, Hancock County Tax Assessor/Collector Jimmie Ladner said Tuesday. In the ruling, Circuit Judge Chris Schmidt said that the DPOA covenants had expired, and that a 2010 DPOA attempt to amend the bylaws to extend the covenants did not meet the requirements, so the organization no longer has the authority to collect dues from property owners once their covenants expire.

Morgan, of Roxie, Miss., and Nordin, of Bay St. Louis, were both charged with disorderly conduct — interfering with business customers, according to the release. They were transported to the Hancock County Adult Detention Center while the investigation continues.

those prayers coming please. She has a long road. We are going to be putting together some benefits & such as she will need help for her and the girls while she recovers."

According to jail records, both Morgan and Nordin were still being held on Monday afternoon Morgan was being held in lieu of a $500 bond, with an initial court hearing scheduled Nov. 5. Bond had not yet been set for Morgan, whose initial court date was scheduled for Nov. 7.

Flag Retirement Program

Edmond Fahey Funeral Home works with local residents and the veterans services organizations to properly retire any U.S. flag that has reached the end of its service. Our program is designed to honor our national heroes, our military veterans, and to give dignity to our American Flag when it is no longer worthy of display. We strive to see that each veteran being cremated has a flag. There is no charge for this service to our veterans.

According to the United States code, Title 4, Chapter 1, Subsection 8: "The flag, when it is in such condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem for display, should be destroyed in a dignified way, preferably by burning."

If you would like to honor a deceased veteran by donating an aged or worn flag to be properly disposed of, you may do so by delivering the flags to our funeral home located on the corner of Necaise Avenue and Main Street.

"We pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

ABOUT ANTIQUE MAISON
"Something for everyone." That is what owner, Sylvia Young, insists her shop on Second Street in Old Town Bay St. Louis offers customers. You will find this to be true once you step into Antique Maison and discover the labyrinth of booths containing many finds. The main room features stalls by different vendors. Walking toward the back of the building, you will discover even more treasures "you can't live without."

Sylvia and Ed moved to Bay St. Louis from New Orleans in 1991. Ed grew up experiencing the buying and selling of furniture for his family's business, Young's Furniture, that was located on Magazine Street. Sylvia was in the real estate business in Metairie, where she "actively sold real estate for 30 years." The couple opened Antique Maison on January 1, 2007, after they renovated the building that was destroyed during Hurricane Katrina. Antique Maison, LLC became a mall that rented booths to different dealers who had lost their own antique malls to Katrina. Soon, the business became a success, "providing dealers with their own business," and offering a variety of merchandise to customers.

"We have everything from industrial furniture and decor, to steam punk creations, nostalgia, vintage, and antique furniture, hand-crafted, vintage, and new silver and gold jewelry, home decor, a variety of art, books, historical collections, tools, a large collection of vinyl records, record players, light fixtures, toys and games, hunting equipment, tree bottles and driftwood, custom-made, hand-crafted wood items, handmade signs, and much more." These are just a few of the items that are available in the shop. Each time you visit, there is sure to be something unique, as "new and interesting merchandise" arrives to Antique Maison daily.

Most of Sylvia's customers include loyal buyers, tourists, local and out of state interior designers and vendors, people that scout and buy for others, and buyers for second homes on the coast. She loves all of her patrons, and has a strong passion for this line of work. Whether you are in the market for antiques, or simply want to browse, Antique Maison is not to be missed.

THE SEA COAST ECHO | THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10, 2024

Lit in memory

The month of October brings about awareness for issues that are near and dear to my heart. Many may not know, but prior to the birth of my amazing, intelligent, insightful, hilarious, and caring nephew, I first became the proud aunt of two angel babies, Evan and Gracie. Both were born prematurely and passed away in 2012 and 2013, respectively. According to october15th.com, in 1988, President Ronald Reagan declared October as National Pregnancy and Infant Loss Awareness Month. “When a child loses his parent, they are called an orphan. When a spouse loses his or her partner, they are called a widow or widower. When parents lose their child, there isn’t a word to describe them. This month recognizes the loss so many parents experience across the United States around the world. It is also meant to inform and provide resources for parents who have lost children due to miscarriage, ectopic pregnancy, molar pregnancy, stillbirths, birth defects, SIDS, and other causes,” — President Ronald Reagan.

STAFF COLUMN
BY CASSANDRA FAVRE

On Oct. 15, people are invited to light a candle for an hour beginning at 7 p.m. in all time zones for a continuous “Wave of Light,” all over the world. I try to remember to light my candle each year in memory of Evan and Gracie. Even though it’s been quite a few years now, I still think about what their little personalities would have been like, what they might have looked like now, and all the shenanigans they might have gotten up to with their Aunt Cass Cass. The losses make the miracle of my nephew’s birth all the more special and that is thanks to the numerous scientific and medical breakthroughs. I’m beyond grateful for my sarcastic and fun-loving nephew, even when he calls me “Caaaassssaaaandra” (yes he sounds it out that way on purpose), instead of the preferred Cass Cass. My own father encourages his grandson’s behavior and has also started pronouncing my name the same way. Those two are peas in a pod. The nephew will always take my dad’s side in most any situation and cheers him on constantly. Their relationship is adorable and definitely special. In a couple of weeks, we will be reunited in Texas and he is already planning things for us to do, which is exciting.

Hancock History: Seawall

A seawall is a hard engineering, shore-based structure that protects the coast from erosion from waves, tides, and tsunamis. Seawalls have been constructed from reinforced concrete, boulders, steel, or gabions. The ancient Greeks and Romans built seawalls made out of poured concrete. Seawalls have been described as the “Armor of Paradise.” In the 1920’s in Hancock County, the automobile was becoming a more frequent addition to the landscape. This innovation required infrastructure such as roads and bridges. The Gulf Coast was enjoying the beginning of an economic transformation as a beach resort destination. A national project called The Old Spanish Trail created Highway 90 that passed through Hancock and Harrison counties. A road along the coast needed protection from erosion. Mississippi built a twenty-six-mile, Dutch design, stair-step, concrete seawall to protect The Old Spanish Trail or Highway 90 in Harrison County. It was completed in 1928. After it was completed, property values shot up and more people were building vacation homes on the Gulf Coast. Erosion claimed most of the beach in front of this seawall until the natural disaster of the Hurricane of 1947. Subsequently, the Army Corps of Engineers undertook a nourishment project of the beaches dredging seven million cubic yards of sand. Now Mississippi bragged that it had both the longest seawall and the longest man-made beach in the world. Jack Davis wrote in his book, “The Gulf,” the following short passage: “Unfortunately, it was discovered that if humans put a beach where nature didn’t, it was common for Mother Nature to steal it. Dikes, jetties, causeways, passes, seawalls—all intended to solve a navigation or water problem, almost always economic related-created, in nearly every instance, a land erosion problem.” The State of Mississippi passed legislation in 1924 calling for the protection of public highways along the shore. A Seawall Tax of three cents a gallon of gasoline was approved. Hancock, Harrison, and Jackson counties passed such a tax. The proceeds of the seawall tax was used to retire bonds and provide for the maintenance of the seawall. Hancock County enjoys a shoreline on Lake Borgne that stretches from the Bay of St. Louis to the East Pearl River. Shoreline erosion is caused by incessant wind and wave action, Flooding, inadequate drainage, and beach attrition. In the early Twentieth Century, it was deemed propitious to protect the eastern shoreline of the county with a seawall. West of Bayou Caddy, the shoreline is entirely low salt marsh. Consequently, considerable residential development has taken place in Hancock County near the coast east of Bayou Caddy, while development westward of Bayou Caddy has not occurred, and it is unlikely that development will occur in the future. The early seawall in Hancock County before Hurricane Katrina in 2005 consisted of a variety of wall types and configurations. Between

HANCOCK HISTORY

1915 and 1920 St. Stanislaus College and the City of Bay St. Louis built a primitive vertical seawall that protected only the downtown business district. Between 1926 and 1928 the County erected a series of step-type seawalls with an adjoining roadway called Beach Boulevard. The aggregate cost of this project was $1.2M. Efforts to establish an adjoining beach in this time frame were unsuccessful. Maintenance of the seawall was limited to essential repair work after episodes of intense flooding. In a forthcoming column the story of the seawall in Hancock County over the last one hundred years will be continued.

AN OLD FRIEND YOU CAN TRUST NATIONAL NEWSPAPER WEEK OCTOBER 6-12

TP FOR THE PEOPLE

GUEST COLUMN BY DAVID SAUER

Sadly, reports have been flowing in to the Hancock Democratic Headquarters in the Froogle Shopping Center that yard signs are being stolen again. Three weeks ago the City of Bay St. Louis sent someone to the office to remind us of the rules on putting signs in one’s yard (not in front of power poles or blocking access to utilities, only on private property). There is no Republican Headquarters in the County according to him, so no one to warn on that side of the political fence. The first inkling of the movement came from the city of Diamondhead Facebook page where Harris/Walz signs were reportedly being taken from yards. Why our neighbors would want to block Democrats from exercising free speech by taking down signs seemed strange. Unfortunately the Hancock County Democrats have already given out most of our 250 signs for Harris/Walz, and were hard pressed to replace those signs. Last week we bought another hundred signs for distribution, but people keep coming in to replace stolen signs. For example, on Sunday Oct. 6, all signs were stolen on Felicity Street as well as adjoining North Beach Boulevard—leaving all the Trump signs untouched according to a resident there. She noticed four of the street’s signs had disappeared in the space of one hour. On the same day there was a post on the Bay St. Louis Residents Facebook page which reported on the culprits at work: “There’s a white lady and two young girls riding around in a golf cart grabbing the Harris signs out of yards. I saw them but before I could get out the door they were down the street.” I hope the woman didn’t take the kids to church before they went on their thieving spree. One would think parents would try to teach their children to respect their neighbors’ property. Showing them such signs could be a teaching moment to illustrate how we all must respect freedom of speech. It is important to allow those, even those with whom we disagree, to express their opinions without censure. It is sad to realize that when Trump signs all remain, and Donald Trump is expected to win the election in Hancock County, some of our neighbors still feel the need to stifle even the mildest differing point of view. What could be more innocuous than a

He sought to teach a lesson about America’s higher ideals: “We have a broader idea of freedom [one that] requires us to recognize that other people have the freedom to make choices that are different than ours. That’s OK! That’s the America Kamala Harris and Tim Walz believe in. An America where “We the People” includes everyone. Because that’s the only way this American experiment works. . . . It’s the values we live by, and the way we treat each other—including those who don’t look like us or pray like us or see the world exactly like we do.” It is to be hoped that those who seek to make the opposition totally mute, even stealing their yard signs to keep their desires from being heard, will eventually come to recognize that this is not the American way. As Abraham Lincoln noted, we must aspire to be “touched by the better angels of our nature.” --David Kennedy Sauer Chair, pro tem, of the Hancock County Democratic Committee

I follow a YouTuber named Eva from England, whose daughter was stillborn, and she raises a lot of awareness about grieving the loss of a child. Almost a year ago now, she gave birth to a second daughter, which made me so happy for her family. I admire Eva’s dedication to sharing her story and the immense grief that is still present, despite the joys her second child has brought into her life. The Star Legacy Foundation’s October campaign is #neverbestill, a movement that “seeks to break the silence surrounding stillbirth and other pregnancy/infant losses by not only educating the public about ways to support bereaved families but also empowering expectant mothers to have a healthy pregnancy.”

Some of the statistics the Star Legacy’s website shares are: One in four women will lose a baby during pregnancy, delivery, or infancy; one in 160 pregnancies will end in stillbirth. More often than not, it seems many people don’t share their stories of loss, which is their prerogative. What goes on in someone’s womb is no one’s business but their own. As someone who is a proud childless cat lady, I have often been asked how many children I have, if I still want to have children, etc. First off, it’s such a rude question to ask people. While I have not experienced the physical loss of a child or the grief that comes with being unable to conceive, there are some who have, and it might cause pain to ask someone those types of questions who is dealing with tough situations. Basically, mind your business when it comes to asking people about children.

On Oct. 15, I encourage you to light a candle for one hour at 7 p.m. so we can all be part of “Wave the Light.” I’ll be specifically remembering Evan and Gracie. The Star Legacy Foundation website, www.starlegacyfoundation.org has some great resources for those who have experienced stillbirth or other pregnancy/infant losses. It also has some great resources for things we can say to those who are grieving. Even though we may think we know the best words of comfort, we often miss the mark and end up causing more harm than good, even if it does come from a place of caring. “Just as one candle lights another and can light thousands of other candles, so one heart illuminates another heart and can illuminate thousands of other hearts.” —Leo Tolstoy Cassandra is a staff writer at the Sea Coast Echo and can be reached at cassandra@seacoastecho.com.

"We are spine-tinglingly elated that our fifth annual BOO in the Bay Parade will have over 1,200 riders all dressed in costumes and accompanied by very creative decorated units," Adams said. "Spectators attending are sure to load up on candy, Halloween trinkets and other fang-tastic throws."

"The parade will offer an amazing display of talent this year with the marching groups and dance teams. Their energy, creativity, and enthusiasm will bring an electrifying vibe to Bay St. Louis. Be on the lookout for the new groups and a couple of mind bending surprises that will be lurking along the route.

"We are excited to announce that the parade will be led by the talented Bay Ratz Marching Battery, who will be pounding the drums along the route to set the perfect rhythm for our royal procession."

Making their grand entrance will be our Royal King BOO, Bradley Sumrall and our enchanting Queen BOO, Bella Whavers. These

A Language of Faith

By REV. C. GERALD RICHARDSON, D. MIN

It is not news to most people that we live in a changing world. A great many of these changes have improved our lives and provided new possibilities which would have not been dreamed of by our ancestors. Medical advances have made it possible for people to live much longer and be healthier than ever before imagined. Transportation, communication, technology, and other areas of progress have given us the opportunity to live in ways that would have seemed like science fiction just a generation or two ago. Access to each other is one result of this progress. Cell phones make it possible to be in touch with friends, family, or business associates in a matter of seconds from almost anywhere in the world. Air travel allows us to cross oceans in hours rather than the weeks which were once required. Entertainment is more diverse and accessible than ever before. We live in a world which would have been considered miraculous just a relatively short time ago. These are amazing gifts for which gratitude is appropriate. These changes, of course, have not come without their share of costs. All of this accessibility has brought proximity with others, but it has not always contributed to community. Proximity without community is often a recipe for trouble. We have experienced that as well. Spiritual faith has been challenged by our growing intellectual and technical advancement. Many people have abandoned the faith which once was a sustaining part of their lives. As we have learned so much more about our world and the universe of which it is a part, spirituality has steadily decreased as a source of influence in our culture. Sadly, the church carries some of the responsibility for this reality.

Rather than offering ways of experiencing and expressing faith in light of new truth, institutional religion has often denounced it, or even denied its validity. We can do better. It is possible to embrace evolving insight without abandoning spiritual faith. There are two realities which have the potential to guide us. Truth and love are concepts which have guided authentic spiritual thought across the ages. Understandings of both have evolved across the years. We have moved from a “flat earth”, “three tiered” concept of creation which anchored spiritual thought for centuries to a greater awareness of the vastness of our universe. We have also broadened and deepened our experience of love. There is still a great deal to do in these areas, but progress has been, and is still being, made. It is possible to embrace truth without fear and to love without reservation and judgment. If we learn this, we may yet discover a spirituality which sustains us and offers hope, even in the midst of a changing, and at times, frightening world. It can start with the recognition that faith is not so much about what we believe, but about the way we relate to each other. This does not mean “lock-step” agreement or uniform behavior. It does mean valuing the worth and dignity of the fullness of creation and its people. The ancient text of the epistle of 1 John offered a glimmer of this truth with the claim that “God is love”. That notion is still worth living by. It may save us yet.

two wonderful children are proud students at the Children’s Center for Communication and Development and we couldn’t be more thrilled to celebrate them.”

BOO In the Bay Grand Marshal, CHOPPA, will not be able to attend due to a serious accident, Adams said, “however, his unit will still roll down the route and we are in hopes CHOPPA will join us in 2025. We will have a camera rolling on his vehicle and encourage everyone attending to hold up signs of support, love, and prayers for CHOPPA and of course sing and get down to his infectious song CHOPPA STYLE. We will be collecting CARDS for CHOPPA at the event as well. There will be a marked box at the Depot grounds, underneath the neon green tent.”

“We are overwhelmed by and appreciative of the support of our BOO sponsors,” Boo in the Bay co-founder Brett Ladner said. ‘We are looking forward to celebrating our fifth anniversary and are stoked to have the band Super Charger entertaining the crowds at the line up from 2-5 p.m. We can’t wait to roll and see the streets filled with costumes and smiling faces.”

All are welcome to attend the festivities at the Depot grounds but you must arrive on foot — there will be no parking because that is where the parade lines up.

“Uncle Joe’s Piz-za and Wings and Beachside Bistro will be on site with incredible food, soft drinks and beer,” Adams said. “They will graciously donate 10 percent of their proceeds to BOO’s beneficiaries, the Children’s Center for Communication and Development and the Bay St. Police Department.”

Line up for the parade begins at the Bay St. Louis Train Depot at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday. All drivers and passengers must be in costume that can be scary but must be family-friendly. All units must be decorated. The parade will roll at 5:30 p.m.

munity. It is in his gene pool. ... We all have a lot to learn from Roy Fullerton”

Fullerton retired as a Mississippi Highway Patrol officer before joining the Bay P.D.

“I got about 42 years of experience in my hip pocket as a law officer,” Fullerton said, and praised his fellow Bay P.D. officers: “It’s all of us collaborating. If everybody here strives to be the strongest member on the team, we can’t lose.”

On Tuesday, Hernandez — joined by Diamondhead Branch Manager Shawn Brokmeier — presented the First-Responder of the Year Award to Eagan.

“We’re so very proud of her,” Sheriff Ricky Adam said of Eagan. “She works very hard, and is very thorough.”

Eagan thanked Hernandez and Brokmeier for the award.

“This means so much to me,” she said. “Thank you so much.” However, she said, “With or without this, I’m still doing the work.”

Keesler Federal Credit Union began the First Responder of the Year program in 2014, Hernandez said.

For every EMT, police officer, and fire fighter in KFCU’s footprint, Hernandez said, departments are asked to nominate a first responder of the year.

PET OF THE WEEK

MEET WILLOW,

a very special kitty. When her person moved, Willow was put outside and left behind. She was abandoned by the very family who was supposed to love and protect her. She developed an eye infection that was not treated, so she is mostly blind in one eye, but it doesn’t impact her sweet personality or ability to navigate the world around her. Willow is great with people and other cats, but she is really afraid of dogs, so for her safety and well-being, she must join a home without dogs. She is about a year old, and likes to play dress up, as well as cuddle with her foster mom. She is litter box trained. Other than the vision impairment in her left eye, she is a healthy, happy kitty. Willow is spayed, up-to-date on vaccines, microchipped, and available for adoption as an indoor only kitty. For more information and to arrange a meet-n-greet with Willow, please call/text Foster Mom Jen at 228-332-6334. You just might meet your forever friend.

THE SEA COAST ECHO

- TOMCATS BLANK ROCKS 32-0 -

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II
STAFF WRITER

The Saint Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws made a short trip to Wiggins to take on the Stone Tomcats on Friday night at Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College. The Rocks (3-3) were unable to get anything going on either side of the football and were shutout 32-0 in just the sixth meeting between the two squads.

The teams first met on the field in 1972 with Stone winning and the Tomcats currently own the series 4-2 with the win on Friday night.

SSC head coach Tate Thigpen commented, “We played poorly on both sides of the football and did not come out with any energy. We had some chances at big plays early in the game, but they did not materialize, and we were not able to get on track after that. It will be a tough week of practice for us to get ready for our first division game of the season against Tylertown. We will have to be ready to play. Our goal is to keep moving forward and overcome adversity.”

The Rocks opened the game on offense but could not move the football. They turned to their talented kicker Evan Noel who made a strong kick that had the distance but missed wide left leaving the score 0-0 with 11:30 left in the first quarter.

The Rock defense held firm and forced a turnover on downs at their own 21-yard line.

The Rocks were intercepted on a tipped ball on the second play of the ensuing possession giving the Tomcats a short field.

Zander Holland tossed a two-yard scoring aerial to Keena Galloway with 4:42 left in the first quarter. Aidan Guinn’s PAT missed leaving the score 6-0.

The teams traded possessions twice before Stone before Kylan Burnett scored from 11 yards out with 6:28 left in the first half. Guinn’s PAT was good making the score 13-0.

The Rocks moved the ball with a 34-yard aerial from Sam Grant to Adam Oliver, but the Rocks were forced to attempt a 47-yard field goal by Noel. With 2:47 remaining in the first half, Noel’s kick again had the distance but missed wide right leaving the score 13-0.

The Tomcats put another score on the board with 36 seconds left before intermission when Howard tossed a 13-yard scoring strike to Galloway. Guinn’s PAT was good making the score 20-0.

Just before intermission, the Rocks made a last ditch effort to find the endzone highlighted by Grant’s 54-yard toss to Tripp Lee who made a nifty move in the open field for additional yards after the catch. However, the drive came to end before the Rocks could find the endzone.

Stone picked up where it left off in the first half with Burnett scoring on a 26-yard run with 10:24 left to play in the third quarter. Alston Davidson put up his big paws and blocked the PAT leaving the score 26-0.

The Rocks and the Tomcats played keep-away the majority of the second half before Stone punched a final score in with 4:46 left to play. Ayden Green scored on a one-yard dive. Things got a little heated when Stone attempted a two-point conversion with the game well in hand. The conversion attempt failed leaving the score 32-0.

The Rocks were led by Grant who threw for 135 yards and two interceptions on 8-for-17 passing while Henry Nunmaker led the ground attack with 50 yards on 10 carries. On defense, the Rocks were paced by Finn Williford with 8 tackles including 1.5 sacks and a fumble recovery. Salvatore Riccardi also added 8 tackles, and 1.5 sacks while Andrew Whitney also added 8 tackles in the game.

Stone was led by Burnett with 15 carries for 128 yards and two scores while Green added 108 yards on 12 carries and a touchdown.

This sportswriter

achieved a milestone in Wiggins Friday night covering my 400th consecutive Friday Night Under the Lights game. While the result was not exactly what could have happened, it has been a truly humbling experience covering all the extraordinary players and coaches that I have had the opportunity to cover for the publications I have written. I would like to thank all the coaches and players that I have covered for the schools of Saint Stanislaus, Bay High, Hancock, Picayune, Pass Christian, Long Beach, Poplarville, and Pearl River Central along the way. It has been a truly rewarding ride over the last 33 seasons. Here’s to another 400 in a row!

- TIGERS FALL TO BOBCATS 34-14 -

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II
STAFF WRITER

The Bay High Tigers made an extended trip to the Hattiesburg area to take on the Presbyterian Christian Friday night and fell victim to the Bobcats 34-14.

The Tigers (1-5) were on offense first and picked up first downs on runs of 9 and 18 yards by Jaylen Antoine before turning the ball over.

Each team traded possessions three times before PCS got on the scoreboard first on a six-yard scoring run by Ed Ruffin with 2:01 left in the half. The PAT was good making the score at intermission 7-0.

After holding PCS to a punt on the first possession of the second half, the Tigers muffed the punt, and the Bobcats took over deep in Tiger territory. Also aided by a defensive holding penalty on the ensuing drive, Ruffin scored from one yard out for the Bobcats with 8:57 remaining in the third period. The PAT made the score 14-0.

After holding the Tigers to a punt, the Bobcats found the endzone again on a 25-yard scoring toss from Smith Stringer to Jet Henderson with 2:38 left in the third quarter. The PAT pushed the score to 21-0.

The Tigers answered on their next possession when Antoine ripped off a 49-yard run with 2:28 left to play in the third quarter following a big kickoff return from Tre Allen. Tripp Barraclough converted on the PAT to make the score 21-7.

On the ensuing possession, Ruffin scored his third touchdown of the game on a four-yard run at the end of the third quarter. The PAT failed leaving the score 27-7.

To open the fourth quarter, Avery Harris returned the kickoff 63 yards before a fumble turned the ball over to the Bobcats. The Tigers were able to keep the Bobcats out of the endzone.

Noah Smith stepped up and blocked a field goal by PCS later in the final period and DeKaiden Johnson returned the loose ball 28 yards.

With 2:50 left to play, Zay Lesure scored for the Bobcats on a one-yard dive. The PAT made the score 34-7.

The Tigers answered the Bobcats with a 51-yard run by Devin Jones with 41 seconds remaining. The PAT made the final score 34-14.

Bay High head coach Jeremy Turcotte stated, “The players gave tremendous effort despite being behind on the board the majority of the night. The players continue to fight no matter the outcome. We open division play this week and we will need to have a solid week of practice to get ready for Moss Point.”

Bay High is set to entertain the Moss Point Tigers tomorrow at the Joe D. McCullough Stadium/Tank Williams Field. Kickoff is set for 7 p.m.

EAGLES EDGE HAWKS 35-34 IN OVERTIME WIN

BY JOSEPH KEYS
CONTRIBUTING WRITER

The Florence Eagles nipped the Hancock Hawks in a 35-34 thriller at Hughes Field in Florence on Friday evening.

Hancock won the toss and elected to defer until the second half. The Eagles’ Adrian Hamphill took the opening kickoff and advanced the ball to the Florence 45-yard line. Florence quickly went on a 10-play, 55-yard drive that resulted in a one-yard touchdown by Gage Brunt. The PAT was good and with 7:15 left to play in the first quarter, the Eagles led 7-0.

On the ensuing kickoff, the Hawks’ Omar Zelaya set them in good field position as he returned the kickoff to the 48-yard line. However, the Eagle defense force stuffed the Hawks on a fake punt attempt, which gave them the ball. The Eagles capitalized on the turnover, taking only three plays to strike gold.

Eagles quarterback Kayne Ashley found Keegan Cooper for a 55-yard touchdown; the PAT was good, and the Eagles led 14-0 to close out the first quarter scoring.

In the second quarter, the Eagles defense came up big again, forcing the Hawks to turn the ball over on downs. On the Eagles' next possession, the Hawks defense forced a punt that was returned by Tre Robinson to the Eagles' 39-yard line, giving Hancock great field position and an opportunity to climb back into the game.

The Hawks took advantage of the opportunity and scored when Kaison Koenenn raced around the end and scored on a 30-yard keeper, trimming the Eagles' lead and exciting the Hawks' fan base. The touchdown followed, by the successful PAT, trimmed the lead to 14-7 and closed out the first-half scoring.

The Hancock Hawks lost in overtime to the Florence Eagles.

The Eagles kicked off to the Hawks to begin what would be an exciting second half of football. The Eagles attempted an on-side kick that was recovered by the Hawks, giving them great field position. However, the Hawks were not able to take advantage and fumbled the ball back to the Eagles, who took over at their own 41-yard line.

The Eagles capitalized on the turnover when Cortlan Battee scored on a two-yard touchdown run that increased the Eagles' lead to 21-7 after the PAT kick was good. The never-quit Hawks answered the Eagles' drive with one of their own, following an outstanding kickoff return by Julyan Santee, which set the Hawks offense up at the 37-yard line. It would take the Hawks only six plays to cover 63 yards to score on a 39-yard touchdown strike from Koenenn to Tyran Ramsey and with 5:26 left to play in the third quarter, the resilient Hawks cut the deficit to 21-14 after Sam Powell kicked the extra point. In the next possession, Florence answered the Hawks' drive when Bryan Davis raced 63 yards to pay dirt and extended the scoring advantage to 28-14 after the PAT. The Hawks fought back once again on the very next drive, going on a nine-play, 60-yard drive that ended with an eight-yard touchdown run by Colton Hopgood. The PAT by Sam Powell was good, ending the third-quarter scoring with the Eagles leading 28-21. The Hawks defense came up big, shutting down Florence's offense for the entire fourth quarter, while Hancock's offense dialed up some fourth-quarter trickery on the Eagles. On a fourth-and-six, Koenenn pitched the ball back to Hopgood, who found Donte Taylor streaking across the end zone and tossed a perfect touchdown strike. The PAT was good, and the game was tied at 28 with just a little over six minutes left to play. The Hawks had a chance to win the game in regulation play; however, Powell's field-goal attempt was blocked with five seconds left to play, sending the game into overtime. In the overtime period, Hancock received the ball first at the 10 yard line and scored when Koenenn connected with Gabe Fricke on for a four-yard touchdown, giving the Hawks the lead. However, Powell's PAT hit the upright, leaving the Hawks' lead at 34-28. The Eagles would get the ball at the 10-yard line with one last chance to win the game. They scored when Kayne Ashley found Cortlan Battee for a 14-yard touchdown strike; the PAT was good, snatching the victory from the Hawks by a score of 35-34. The Hawks, 1-5 will return home next week to host the West Harrison Hurricanes to open district play. "We managed the travel very well," Hancock Head Coach Neil Lollar said. "We are getting better, we still have some things to improve on they deserved to get a win I'm expecting good things in the future for this team."

YOUR LOCAL SEAFOOD JOINT IN THE HEART OF BAY ST. LOUIS!

We are family owned and operated since 2004. For years we operated on Breath's Bayou on Hwy 603. With the resilience of our family and locals that loved our food, we have been able to build Cuz's into what it is today. Like a Rock and Roll Band, we couldn't have done it without our faithful locals! For years now, our boiled seafood has been praised for being some of the best around. We have always offered the freshest of Gulf Seafood. As a matter of fact, our family has been known to fish right here at the train bridge. However, tale has it that not many trout ever made it in the boat, even though trout were everywhere. We guess that is why they call it fishing and not catching. Some can catch and some can cook. We use the freshest of everything available. Mornings at Cuz's consist of multiple deliveries of seafood, bread, vegetables, seasonings, local brews and supplies.

A new chapter opened with our move to beautiful Old Town, Bay St. Louis. You can enjoy a stroll down the beach or a walk through Old Town; our family will always be here for you. At any given time, you will see locals enjoying their favorite dishes, sports enthusiasts watching the big game enjoying a cold local brew, and families outside just chilling out. Dine inside, or outside under the oaks. Enjoying that Gulf breeze with one of our ice-cold beverages makes for such a relaxing meal. We take big pride in providing an atmosphere that can be enjoyed by the whole family. Personal gratitude is felt when observing the good times and memories that have come together. Our dishes and experience will surely have you coming back for more.

With a passion to deliver great food in Bay St. Louis for everyone, we are excited to invite you to our newest location in Old Town Bay St. Louis. Welcome to beautiful downtown Bay St. Louis, (A Place Apart) from all of us at Cuz's.

If you haven't been to Cuz's lately, you haven't been to Cuz's. Enjoy!

BEACHSIDE BISTRO

EST. 2021

After hearing the stories about growing up in the Lala "Summer Home" in Cedar Point, we designed the bistro to feel warm & welcoming, as if you were visiting as part of our extended family. Our little slice of heaven is based on travels, epicurious palates, & joie de vivre which lead to the development of recipes with a nod to Creole, Italian & French heritage, dinner with friends, The Bay, and our childhood homes in Louisiana & Florida. Freshness, local sourcing, and creativity allow Chef Joe and his team to craft varied menus for every season. We look forward to providing you a relaxing and memorable culinary experience in our Summer Home!
